

Ms. Sandy Wong
Co-Covener of the Working Group on Empowerment

Ms. Sandy Wong is Head of Legal of Maxim's Caterers Limited.

She obtained her LLB from the City University of Hong Kong, LLM (Corporate and Commercial) from King's College, University of London and PCLL from The University of Hong Kong.

Ms. Wong is a member of International Bar Association, Inter-Pacific Bar Association, Law Association for Asia and Pacific, Asia Patent Attorneys Association, an overseas member of the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys, and an associate member of American Bar Association and Australian Corporate Lawyers Association.

Ms. Wong is the Past President (2005 -2007), current Chair of Women's Rights Committee and council member of Hong Kong Federation of Women Lawyers. She is advisor to The Alumni Association of the School of Law of the City University of Hong Kong and Chairman of Legal Education Trust. She is also a member of the Advisory Committee on Optometry of the School of Optometry of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, the Steering Committee of Child Development Fund, Women's Commission, Action Committee Against Narcotics, Independent Police Complaints Council, and Steering Committee on Review of the Regulation of Private Healthcare Facilities, and Vice Chair of Human Organ Transplant Board.